Please note! Severe traffic disruption around NWO-I: see route 'By car'

Electric car charging point near NWO-I

If you drive an electric car then a charging point is vitally important. Near NWO-I one public charging point is available at the Van Vollenhovenlaan 451, in front of the entrance of 'ERC De Keizershof' (the building next to NWO-I).

By public transport

From Utrecht Central Station take the sneltram ('fast tram') to Nieuwegein-Zuid or IJsselstein (both are okay). The tram leaves from the Jaarbeursplein. About five minutes after departure get out at the '5 Mei Plein' stop (fourth stop from Central Station and the stop after '24 Oktoberplein Zuid'). The Office is to the left of the tram line (opposite Kanaleneiland shopping centre).

Please note: the entrance is at the back of the building, on the Van Vollenhovenlaan.

* If you travel by public transport, then we advise you to travel by tram *

You walk along the right side of the building. You will find the entrance at the back of the building.

This is the front of the building, seen from Kanaleneiland shopping centre (Beneluxbaan). In the middle of the photo you can see the tram stop where you get off if you travel by public transport. Please note: the entrance is at the back of the building, on the Van Vollenhovenlaan.

Here you will find the entrance of the building.

By car to NWO-I

Parking at NWO-I

At NWO-I it is customary that, when the parking spaces are taken, people park their car next to the office building alongside the sidewalk (see picture above). Up to now this has been tolerated. But as from now civil servants will strictly monitor that only the official parking spaces are being used. We therefore kindly request everyone to no longer park alongside the sidewalk, but only in the designated parking spaces.

PLEASE NOTE! Severe traffic disruption at NWO-I in Utrecht until May 2017

The 'Gemeente Utrecht' is constructing a separate bus lane through Transwijk. During the last week of January the contractor will start the preparatory work for this. Until 1 May 2017 this will cause severe traffic disruption between 5 Mei Plein and the Anne Frankplein. NWO-I will be less accessible during this period. The preparatory work is expected to last until the end of September. This means that after 1 May you may still experience closures and diversions. In October 2017 the construction of the bus lane will start and this will also cause disruption. Gemeente Utrecht's official notice to the neighbourhood can be found in the attachment. It contains detailed information about the work to be carried out and the associated closures and diversions.

Be aware! Increase in car burglaries around NWO-I

NWO-I Office is located in the Kanaleneiland/Transwijk-Noord neighbourhood in Utrecht. Utrecht City Council has informed us that there has been another serious increase in car burglaries since the autumn of 2015. This mainly happens from the end of the afternoon when it starts to get dark until the next morning. Cars burgled have mainly been in the area of the Van Vollenhovenlaan, the street where the Office is located. Most of these vehicles have been burgled to steal parts for popular brands such as the Audi A3 and Volkswagen Golf. But sometimes cars have been burgled for nothing of value: items such as a pair sunglasses, a pack of chewing gum or a scarf lying in the car have then been taken. The cars are burgled in a matter of seconds and in full parking areas it is easy for the perpetrators to hide between the cars. The police will patrol the area more and residents are also being asked to be extra alert. As a visitor to NWO-I we want to make you aware of this situation and request you to bear this in mind if you visit the Office by car.

Please leave nothing whatsoever in your car when you visit NWO-I!
